

Case Study-2

During the family visit by JJVS team members, anganwadi teachers, Miss Sharila Kujur and her assistant Miss Sanjalina Kujur discussed the status of the anganwadi school. Inputs on the health were given for the children between the age 0 to 6, 6 to 14 and 14 to 18. The anganwadi teacher stated that the children are hearty and healthy, free from any sickness.

Information was given by the anganwadi teacher about Parvati Bai, age 17, Holika Bai, age 18 and Anuradha Bai, age 22, had gone to Delhi for work and have returned. The JJVS team after being informed of their return, went out to meet their family members, where they found out that these girls were ready to venture once again to Delhi for work. When asked by the JJVS team about when the girls were leaving for DELHI, they said that they were leaving on 11.09.17. Later, the requested the girls to them along for work to Delhi, to which, the girls agreed. JJVS team their mobile numbers and came back to the organization quarters. Thereafter the team discussed the matter with the origization members. Miss Mamta Kujur gave the JJVS team initial steps to be taken.

On the day previously decided to leave for Delhi, Parvati Bai informed the team that her grandmother's health was not keeping well, so they could not leave as planned. The date had been postponed to 12.09.2017. On 12.09.2017, the plan was cancelled, once again, due to unknown reasons. The team continued to be in touch with them throughout the week. During these days Parvati Bai shared the mobile number of her aunt Gayatri Bai with Madhurima of the JJVS team. The team now tried to get into contact with Gayatri Bai.

Projecting themselves as prospective candidates to seek work in Delhi, the JJVS team contacted Gayatri Bai. The JJVS team told Gayatri Bai that they had told their parents about going for work to Delhi, after which, Gayatri Bai agreed to take the team Delhi for work. According to Gayatri Bai's plan, she would come on 21.09.2017, to pick up the girls from Jashpur and would leave for Delhi. The girls who were going to Delhi were:-
